Rea B. Hunter Is Elected City Treasurer For Sonoma

Sonoma Valley Woman Works In Behalf Of Soldiers

CITY ELECTION MONDAY HAD ONE CONTEST

Hunter Received 184 Votes and Clewe 121; Plaza Measure Defeated By 80 Votes

The city election Monday brought out a good vote and one lively contest marked the selection of officials for the next term. Friends of R. B. Hunter and William F. Clewe, the latter a candidate for re-election, worked from the time the polls opened to elect their favorite When the votes were counted, it revealed the fact that Hunter was the winner, the vote being Hunter 184 to Clewe's 121.

The new city treasurer is manager for F. Duhring and is a popular young business man, as was revealed by the handsome majority he received.

The new city trustee, Jep Valente, led the ticket for council man, his vote being 260, while Fred Bulotti the other member re-elected to serve on the board got 233 votes. There was no contest for these places, Valente succeeding Sam B. Lewis, whose term had expired, and Bulotti being re-elected for a third term.

The efficient city clerk, H. W. Gottenberg, had no opposition and was elected with a vote of 239.

The measure authorizing a 15 cent tax for park purposes was defeated by 191 noes to 111 in favor. A two-thirds vote would have been necessary to carry it.

The proposed $25,000 bond issue for sewage extension is thought to have been the cause of the park proposition losing, as taxpayers could not see their way clear to take on a bigger burden at this time, even for so laudable a purpose as the beautification of the Plaza.

TRUSTEES DISCUSS SEWER EXTENSION

Instruct City Attorney and Engineer to do Preliminary Work on the Proposed Improvement.

At a special meeting of the city trustees the proposed sewage extension was discussed with the city attorney and city engineer.

The board decided to have the preliminaries for a bond election or assessment plan taken up by its attorney, who will advise as to the best method of financing the proposed improvement.

City Engineer Specht was authorized to make preliminary surveys and get other data necessary to the extension plan.

Decided protest is voiced by sportsmen at the proposition to carry the sewage to tide water. The vicinity of the proposed improvement is the Mecca of many fishermen and duck hunters, who come to Sonoma Valley for recreation. Local sportsmen declare that some other way of disposing of the sewage should be dedecided upon by the trustees.

Miss C. Nessi of Oakland, formerly a Sonoma girl, is to take the veil and will become a sister in one of the bay city convents.

Another Large Order Received for Sonoma Eggs

A repeat order, this time for 115 cases of Sonoma eggs, has been received from a customer of the Sonoma Mission Creamery, who is enthusiastic over the quality of eggs being supplied by this Sonoma firm. The eggs are for Eastern shipment.

PYTHIANS MEET AT KENWOOD HOME

A gathering and barbecue was held at the Pythian Home in the Valley of the Moon on Sunday and was attended by 1500 members of the Order from all parts of the state.

The executive committee of the Grand Lodge, headed by Grand Chancellor Dr. O. E. Jackson, were present as follows: Grand Keeper of Records and Seals Charles J. Creller of San Francisco, secretary of the executive committee; Grand Vice Chancellor William R. Myers of Los Angeles; Past Grand Chancellors James G. Sloan of Oakland and Jesse W. Carter. the latter being the district attorney of Shasta county.

The Pythian Home committee was also present, consisting of Hon. F. H. Merriam, speaker of the Assembly, chairman of the Home committee; H. Broughton, Los Angeles; Superior Judge George Samuels, Oakland; Superior Judge Guerrin, Los Angeles; J. C. Brown, Cottonwood; W. U. Goodman, Suisun, and W. Hillbourn, Healdsburg.

The committee met and formulated their report for the Grand Lodge and reviewed plans for the new buildings on the Home site to cost no less than $100,000 and arranged for a per capita tax.

The Grand Lodge owns all the site and there will be no indebtedness. It was decided to purchase 700 acres back of the present site.

A delicious barbecue was enjoyed by the 1500 people present.

MRS LUCIEN JOHNSON IS CALLEN BY DEATH

Mrs. Lucien Johnson of Eldridge died at her home at that place Sunday. She leaves a husband, Lucien H Johnson and two daughters, Eulalia Tucker and Florence Johnson, to mourn her. She had been a devoted wife, mother and grandmother, and will be greatly missed by her family, including relatives in Portland, Ore., where she was born.

Deceased was aged 58 years and 3 months.

The funeral took place from the M. E. church here Tuesday afternoon, Rev. S. E Crowe officiating at the services Interment was in Mountain Cemetery.

The public is cordially invited.

FIRE PROTECTION FOR SONOMA VALLEY

Editor, Index-Tribune:

The people of Sonoma Valley very recently voted on a fire district proposition, which, as everyone knows was badly defeated. Everybody realizes that we need fire protection and in order to have a good fire fighting system we need a good supply of water and a legally established set of fire commissioners.

The indefinite plans for a water system, fire fighting aparatus and the too extensive territory included in this last fire district election was mainly the causue of its having been defeated.

My proposition for an efficient fire fighting system would eliminate all pumping of water to storage tanks and all fire engines, simply requiring water mains and hose carts. Above the head of Caliente Creek Canyon is a large natural watershed, including also a number of springs running the whole year round. This canyon, near its head, narrows down to the width of the creek bed. A small dam would back up the water a long distance, thereby creating a large storage reservoir. A pipe line from this reservoir extending down the canyon, with a distributing system all over the valley including Caliente, Fetters, Boyes, Sonoma Vista, El Verano and even Sonoma would give an ample water supply for all fire purposes. The height of the reservoir above the floor of the valley will give a nozzle pressure of over 150 pounds, ample for fire fighting.

My idea would be to have hose carts stationed in different parts of the valley, with some one living near each hose cart and to have charge of same. The main expense of installing this fire system would be for water pipe and laying same, buying the land which a storage reservoir would cover and which is virtually worthless for any other purpose, and the construction of a small dam. The money saved by avoiding the installation of a pumping plant for water tanks and the elimination of fire engines would go a long way towards paying for the pipe lines, etc.

ATTENDED FUNERAL OF SAN FRANCISCO FRIEND

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphy went to San Francisco Monday to attend the funeral of their old friend, Christian W. Smith, who passed away in that city last Saturday.

Mr. Smith was the president of the Coffin-Reddington wholesale pioneer drug firm of the metropolis. He came to San Francisco when a boy and had taken a prominent part in the upbuilding of that city.

He was a progressive citizen, patron of the arts, good sportsman, loyal friend and devoted husband. To the employees and co-workers of the firm of which he was the head he gave the intimate and human bond of sympathy which endeared him to that big organization.

Deceased leaves a widow, Bessie Yates Smith, to mourn him, and a sister, who resides in Washington, District of Columbia.

BINNEY'S TRIAL IS SET FOR MONDAY

The trial of H. J. "Josh" Binney, former Sonoma Valley motion picture company promoter and comedian, on fraud charges growing out of the organization of aMontana film company a year ago, will open in the Silver Bow county district court at Butte on next Monday.

G. Abbot, who sued the Sonoma Photo Play Corporation for $18 alleged to be due him for electrical work at the studio, failed to make his claim clear to Judge Small this week and the action was dismissed. Mr. Abbot took the matter up with the Labor Commission who replied that Moris Levy, president of the corporation denied any liability and stated that the corporation was refused a permit to sell shares or do business and was therefore inoperative.

Eugene Robin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robin and popular clerk for Gottenberg Brothers, recently underwent an operation in San Francisco and is now doing nicely.

Index-Tribune Is Printing Register For the County

The Sonoma Index-Tribune is working day and night and will be for the next ten days, printing the great register for Sonoma County. The handling of this big work which must be completed and delivered within two weeks, necessitates a day and night shift, with several extra employees.

DAUGHTER OF FORMER SONOMAN WINS FAME

From the ranks of the new bathing girls Mack Sennett has already picked a second winner. The first was Alberta Vaughn. The latest is the daughter of the former Natalia Haraszthy.

The beautiful young woman is Miss Natalie Kingston, who went to Hollywood from San Francisco, giving up a promising dancing career to go into pictures. At the very bottom she started, as atmosphere in a Sennett commedy. Her beauty and vivacity won her a place in the bathing girl chorus, and now comes her opportunity as a comedienne, playing opposite Ben Turpin in "Yukon Jake." The part called for a beautiful girl who could ride, and being a clever horsewoman, Natalie was selected and is filling the bill to the satisfaction of the comedy king and Oirector Del Lord.

"Yukon Jake" is the story of a hardy exponent of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police law, starring Turpin, with a couple of fur-trading rascals, played by Kalla Pasha and Jack Richardson.

PHILIP CHEDA DIES IN SWITZERLAND

Philip Cheda, well known here, where he often transacted business and had many friends, died in a hospital at Lacarno, Switzerland, March 25th, of pneumonia, and was laid at rest at Maggia, the news having been just received and it will cause much regret here.

He was a member of a prominent family and was born at Nicasio, Marin county, about 40 years ago. As a boy he went to Switzerland with his relatives and returned here about twenty years ago and engaged in business with a large commission firm, later buying the Maggoria cheese factory between Petaluma and Sonoma. He sold this some time ago and left for Switzerland to visit his mother, planning to return, but while there was taken ill and passed away in March.

He is survived by his aged mother in Switzerland, his widow and two children.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS DANCE ON MAY 17

The always popular Native Daughters will give another of their successful dances on May 17th. Music will be furnished by Les's jazz kings.

Miss Ann Cook won the diamond ring given away at the Jennings tent show here last week.

MRS E. SHEPARD VISITED SEVERAL SOLDIER PROJECTS

Returns From Extensive Trip South In Interest of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Eliza Shepard of Glen Ellen, who represents the auxiliary of the American Legion in California, has returned from the South, where she visited many projects in behalf of soldiers of the late war. Accompanied by Mrs. E. Grendell, the Glen Ellen representative of our soldier boys first went to Palo Alto where the work of fitting up the big building for convalescent has been undertaken by the auxiliary.

At Gilroy, the posts were visited and officers of the Woman's Auxiliary installed.

Continuing to Los Angeles, the ladies attended the County Council and also inspected Southern California soldier hospitals. including Banning and Camp Kearney.

In the Imperial Valley particular attention was given to soldiers' farms where the ex-service men on land acquired through government aid are raising grape fruit. Scientific instruction is supplied them but Mrs. Shepard says it will be five years before these ex-service men will be self-sustaining.

An effort is being made by the auxiliary to get a home for the enlisted war nurses, which would be located near Los Angeles.

STEINKAMP'S NEW RESORT OPENING

Enterprising Hotel Proprietor to Throw Open Hospitable Doors Tonight and Tomorrow.

The new and modern resort built by William Steinkamp following the fire at Boyes Springs which swept away the former buildings, will be thrown open to the public tonight. A fine spring chicken dinner and dancing will feature the evening and the public will have an opportunity to inspect the spacious new hotel. The dining room is convertible to an open air grill for summer time and has maple floor, as have the other portions of the new structure. There are 30 guest rooms with running water and shower baths, Mr. Steinkamp having developed a wonderful water system on the place and put in a pressure system. The furnishings are all new, the beds being especially comfortable with their silk floss mattresses.

A believer in home industry, Mr. and Mrs.Steinkamp purchased all their furniture here in Sonoma from F. Clewe.

A big crowd is expected at the opening tonight and the fine Easter Sunday dinner and supper tomorow.

The latter part of May, the San Francisco Harmonie Society of ladies, all talented singers, will have their annual outing at Steinkamp's, so they decided recently at their banquet in the States Restaurant in San Francisco.

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

The meanest thief in the world recently plied his trade at Verano, when in the dark of the night he removed a side from a barn, drove up with a big truck and took the contents, leaving nothing but the old gray mare to greet the owner who returned in the wee small hours of the morning. The stock on hand, it is said, was very valuable, consisting of hard apple cider, a number of puncheons of Billy Bryan's famous grape juice and other soft drinks too numerous to mention. There was no insurance on the goods. The night prowlers were heard by neighbors, but they thought it was the owner, who was at a local dance tripping the light fantastic, looking over his personal goods. No clew has been found as yet of the bandits. The owner, who is a Sonoma Valley leading Beau Brummel, was on the eve of leaving on a visit across the pond to renew acquaintance with his boyhood friends in foreign parts, but has canceled the trip. In the writer's opinion there is no doubt that the high jackers thought they had run into a moonshine distillery and will no doubt return the goods when they discover their mistake.

The railroad car with Chamber of Commerce men on a tour which turned over near Eureka recently was attached to the regular passenger train Saturday morning, enroute to Oakland to be repaired. None of the occupants were injured when the large Pullman went into the ditch, but all were badly shaken up.

George Diebold, Sonoma Valley pioneer celebrated his 74th birthday at Fetters Springs last Sunday evening and a large crowd of invited friends were present. Songs of the old days, violin and piano selections by Al John son and Jack Fan, cards, and an elaborate supper were enjoyed. George received many presents, and theguests wished him many happy returns of the day.

Misses Nell and Mary O'Brien were Monday evening passengers for San Francisco.

James Norrbom is enjoying his school vacation in Vallejo and word from there states that he is having a fine time.

El Verano friends wish to congratulate the newly elected Sonoma city treasurer, Rea Hunter, who scored a victory over the veteran office holder, Wiliiam Clewe, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glaive and Mr. and Mrs. E. Pierson of San Francisco were guests Sunday at the Mrs. J. Dutil home.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett of San Francisco were entertained Sunday at the Jaspar home in Sonoma Vista.

John Fleming is the owner of a new Ford car. Mr. Fleming handles the new roadster like a veteran and is becoming an expert driver.

The marriage of G. Cooper and Miss Bonnie of San Francisco took place at Sebastopol last week. Mr. Cooper has been residing here for several months and he and his sweet bride are being congratulated by valley friends. Following a honeymoon trip to Southern California they will make their home in Guerneville.

Mrs. J. Smith and daughters of Vallejo are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norrbom.

H. DelBuono, poultry man, made a business trip to San Francisco last week.

W. C. Cusick, well known freight conductor of Santa Rosa, was taken sick last week and removed to the S. P. Hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Summer guests are beginning to show up around the various El Verano summer resorts. Owing to the fact that Boyes Springs Hotel has not been rebuilt, it is expected that many vacationists will flock to El Verano this summer. Proprietors here look for a business like that of many years ago when the first resort in Sonoma Valley, now under the management of Captain Tullett, was opened by A. Nevraumont.

The election officers in El Verano for the May primaries are T. H. Baines, D. W. Corbin, Ollie Wilkerson, George Weaver, Miss Emily Kearney and Miss Hazel Baines. The polling place is at the El Verano barber shop.

Bill Sutter, formerly a fighting man for Uncle Sam, has accepted a position at San Quentin in the auto repairing department.

Miss Annie Abatie of San Francisco is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Perret for two weeks.

George Colgan, popular express and mail agent in the local Santa Rosa run, has recently started his 34th year as an employee of the express company. Mr. Colgan during his long and faithful service has been in several railroad wrecks but looks to the writer, and his many friends, just as he did 30 years ago.

The El Verano grammar school will open again Monday after a week's Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Lamotte of San Francisco motored up for that city last week and visited with El Verano friends.

The Biscioni Brothers are busy planting out the large L. P. Kearney acreage to cucumbers.

Owing to the coming presidential election the wise ones are beginning to pick the winners. McAdoo seems to be a dead one, and it is whispered that the anit-McAdoo ticket will be voted heavily by El Veranoites. The hiring of the Democratic presidential prospect as attorney for the late oil scandals has put McAdoo out of the running and we look to see either Senator Copeland or Governor Smith of New York land the Bourbon plum.

Bill Baines has been appointed the official bug doctor for the district and promises to rid the community of mosquitoes, much to the delight of our sweet summer girl vacationists, who dread the bites inflicted by these pests in the good old summer time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McKinnon and family of Concord were guests at the Dowdall home Sunday.

Dr. Fred Butler, superintendent of the Sonoma State Home, has been delegated by the State Department to represent this state at the National Association for the study of the feeble minded, which opens at Washington, May 24th. Dr. Butler will also visit big institutions similar to the Sonoma State Home before returning to California.

Lloyd Riser and other S. P. rail men were Valley of the Moon visitors, having motored up from Suisun last Friday evening.

Marcel Portugal, El Verano speed demon, was halted at Sonoma on last Friday night by Speed Cop Joe Ryan. Portugal was stepping on the gas when arrested by Ryan, and was cited to appear before Judge Small at Sonoma.

The sudden disappearance of two kids last week caused great excitement when the owner, G. Sacco, discovered them missing. The litle goats were staked out and it is said an

NORTH BAY EXPOSITION AT DREAMLAND RINK

Plans are progressing rapidly for the great industrial exposition to be given at Dreamland Rink under the auspices of New Era Lodge No. 32, Knights of Pythias, for the purpose of raising funds to defray the cost of entertaining the Pythian Grand Lodge and delegates who will assemble in Petaluma in annual convention in May. The delegates with hundreds of others will be the guests of the Pythian Lodge and Petaluma for a full week.

The North of Bay Exposition was inspired by the selection of the Kearns Ranch in Sonoma county as the Pythian state home, and is a means of celebrating this great asset to Sonoma county and the North of Bay District. Great credit is given to Dr. O. E. Jackson, the Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias in California, whose home is in Petaluma, and whose efforts located the new home in Northern California.

The exposition, which promises to eclipse anything in its line ever held in Sonoma county, will be held at Dreamland Rink from April 29th to May 4th, with appropriate special features for May Day.

There will be various forms of entertainment eac hday, while each section will be given special features. The exhibits will run from costly wares to farm exhibits and school displays, as well as musical instruments, foods, art ware, furniture, autos, manufactured goods and thousands of other things.

The radio will play a prominent part in entertaining, for several of the most powerful receiving sets obtainable will be installed, with a splendid musical program, addresses and many novel features.

There will be contests and gifts, and surprise features, with something doing every moment. It is planned to have distinctive features for the lodges, the school children and all lines of business.

To Make Floor Wax.

A good floor wax is made by melting a scant half-pound of beeswax, set in a pan of hot water. Add gradually, stirring well, a quart of turpentine, and, when mixed, a half-cupful of ammonia. Cover closely the saucepan containing it and set outer vessel of hot water at the back of the stove to heat it for ten minutes. Apply warm with a piece of flannel and polish with a rough cloth.

CORRUPTION FATTENS ON PROHIBITION

With this part of California in the constant throes of clean-ups by dry squads who arrest, jail and fine law breakers on various liquor charges we read of illicit liquor deals in Washington, to arraignment of a Congressman for serious violation of the law while wearing the official toga, and disclosure of startling graft in Ohio these prohibition agents and officers are said to getting rich under the present "dry" system which for apparently linked them and bootleggers in profitable bond.

An International News Service Bureau writer ouutlines Ohio conditions as follows:

Following disclosures that special deputies working under the provisions of state dry laws have been making in some cases more than $40,000 per year, and that justices of the peace, mayors and village marshals and town constables having their places of business in and near big cities have been making fortunes in the same manner, the entire state has become embroiled in a discussion of dry law enforcement methods.

After a decison by Attorney-General C. C. Crabble that men employed by the state can only be employed on a straight salary basis. Prohibition Director B. F. McDonald, at the direction of Governor A. V. Donahey, summarily dismissed more than 100 "card" deputies, who received as their compensation a portion of the fines assessed by justices of the peace for alleged violations of the dry laws.

Hard on the heels of this official's action Judge John M. Killitts, of the United States District Couurt, at Toledo, wrote to the Governor and the attorney-general a scathing denunciation of alleged methods of law enforcement followed by justices of the peace and constables in the neigghborhood of Toledo. He declared that gross irregularities had been committed and that, in his opinion, some of the men whose duty it was to enforce the law had been guilty of extortion and other crimes in connection with its operation.

Similar stories come from all sections of the state. Citizens declared their homes are invaded on illegal search warrants, while at the same time bootleggers continue, they say, to ply their trade unchecked. An investigation just completed by one county—Jefferson—more than $60,000 had ben collected illegally by law enforcement officers.

As a resuult of these disclosures, Governor Donahey and Attorney-General Crabbe—the one a Democrat and the other a Republician—are conducting independent probes of the conditions existing with regard to enforcement of liquor laws throughout the state.

The Anti-Saloon League had officially condemned both officials, although both were elected to office with dry support, and Crabbe is the author of the present Ohio enforcement law, the operation of which has resulted in widespread graft, according to officials.

BRING AMERICA HOME

During the war, every village, town and city in the United States, was engaged in war work and became an active vitalized unit of the country working as an aggregate for success and victory. How well it succeeded is best attested by the history of our activities and the triumph of our mobilization and movement overseas.

If the system of circularizing America was good for war it is surely good in time of peace and must be most applicable in the Americanizing of foreigners wwho want to become citizens. Evidently with this theory in view we find classes in Americanization being offered in our schools, a splendid and valuable method for the dissemination of the knowledge required of aliens. Instruction brought directly to the candidate for citizenship in this manner has the added value of inspiration and enthusiasm not to be found in books or picked up by chance instruction. Here in our own town of Sonoma we have these classes for foreigners whom it is to be hoped will promptly avail themselves of this opportunity.

Heating Car Wheel Tires.

For heating railroad car wheel tires before mounting them by the shrinking process, an electrical method is in use in France in which the tire forms the secondary of a transformer, being heated by the induced current. The transformer has two laminated horizontal arms, one above the other, connected by a pair of vertical cores. The copper arm is pivoted and counterbalanced so that it can be swung around to permit the introduction of the tire. It is then swung back, putting the transformer into operative position.

GOOD MUSIC AND A GOOD TIME FOR EVERYONE

VINEBURG ITEMS

Everyone, that is, the orchard and vineyard men, are busy now on their places preparing for the coming season.

Frank D. Groskopf was tendered a birthday party on Wednesday evening at his cozy home in Vineburg by his many Sonoma and Vineburg friends All kinds of amusements were enjoyed by those present. A delicious repast was served, covers being laid for 20. A fine time was reported by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto, Miss Emily Batto and Herbert Batto have gone to the Summit and will be guests at California's famous mountain resort until after Easter.

Mr. and Mrs August Figone and family are guests at the John Batto residence.

THE SONOMA VALLEY IMPROVEMENT CLUB

The Sonoma Valley Improvement Club met Wednesday night, President White in the chair. The members are showing increased interest in club affairs and matters pertaining to the welfare of the Valley of the Moon and are awakening to the fact that the sooner sectional jealousy is eradicated, and co-operation establish, the resulting effect will redound to our little paradise a thousand fold.

We are having a plethora of social events. First, Mr. Hansen celebrated his advent into this vale of tears and this anniversary was something that will be remembered for a long time. A number of guests motored up from San Francisco to join in giving him his 40 taps. Music, dancing and eats lasted until 3 a. m.

Then our old friend George Diebold remembered his birthday and kept open house all day Sunday.

Miss Margaret Larsen, the young lady president of the San Francisco Junior Musical Society, is spending a few days with relatives here.

SCHOOL PICNIC MAY 28

A series of community gatherings including all the rural schools of the county is announced by Miss Louise Clark, county superintendent of schools. These gatherings, to be known as "get together days," are to be 21 in number and are to take place during April, May and June.

During the morning each school is to hold open house for parents and patrons, hoping they will come and get acquainted with the work of the school.

At noon all will go to a central point where a picnic lunch will be enjoyed and the afternoon will be spent in organized play by the children of the various schools, supervised by the teachers.

Plans for the morning are under the direction of the general supervisors, Miss Elizabeth Richards, Miss Nelle Towle, and Miss Nettie Maurer, while the afternoon program will be in charge of Miss Myra Green, director of physical education.

The Sonoma Grammar School and other districts of the valley will have the play day and picnic on May 28th. Kenwood, Dunbar Union, Enterprise and Triniti have their day June 4th.

PLAN PICNIC FOR GERMAN CHILDREN

The Sonoma Lodge, Order of Redmen, is planning a grand picnic, the proceeds of which will go to aid the fund for suffering German children. The movement to aid the innocent victims of the late war is nation wide and the Sonoma Lodge can be counted upon to do its share. A splendid committee consisting of Messrs. Fox, Schrempf, Steinkamp and Muller is arranging for the big festival.

Mrs. Otto Spindler and children of San Francisco have been visiting with home folks here.

MAKE YOUR YARD A BEAUTY SPOT!

When summer comes, what will you have, just a back yard or a fenced-in plot that is a real beauty spot?

There is nothing which adds so much to the outward appearance of a home, nothing that makes a place look quite so "homey" as plenty of green foliage combined with a few simple garden fixtures, such as a lattice or picket fence, an arched gate, an easily built pergola or arbor, a pergola swing, etc.

Such improvements are easily constructed, cost very little and add greatly to the looks and value of a home. Get busy now and have your yard ready for the first warm days.

Let us help you plan your improvements and give you prices. You will be under no obligation in doing so.

AKERS CELEBRATE THEIR 20th ANNIVERSARY

Superintendent of Streets and Mrs. Stephen Akers entertained 22 guests on Sunday at their pretty home on Bassett street in honor of the twentieth anniversary of their marriage, which took place in Petaluma at the home of Mrs. Akers' parents, Mrs. Elizabeth Lawler and the late John Lawler, Sr., on Upham street.

They are the parents of two splendid sons, Paxton and Billy, and are popular with many friends who will extend the best wishes to them.

A full course turkey dinner was served and the beautiful flowers placed as decorations were pink tulips, stock and roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Akers received many beautiful gifts and were heartily congratulated.—Petaluma Argus.

NEUKOMS RECEIVE THEIR COAT-OF-ARMS

John Neukom was delighted this week to receive from his brother, an architect of Switzerland, a copy of the Neukom family coat-of-arms. The crest was discovered in the archives of one of the libraries of that country and is accompanied by the statement that the family is one of the old families of the republic, dating back to the fifteenth century.

Mrs. Neukom's maiden name was also Neukom, although she can trace no relationship to her husband's family. However, they agree the original branch was the one represented by the coat-of-arms from Canton Schaffhausen.

THOMSON FAMILY AT NEW RESIDENCE

Mrs. A. M. Thomson and two sons of Sonoma are here enjoying a short vacation. They are at the residence on upper Fourth street that was recently purchased by Dr. and Mrs. Thomson ,and which is now being remodeled. Dr. Thomson's father and mother are expected to arrive here soon from Missouri and after the completion of alterations will reside in the Thomson home here.—Santa Rosa Press Democrat.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express sincere thanks for words of sympathy and other kindnesses during our recent bereavement and assure our friends of our appreciation of the beautiful floral offerings.

HENNESSEY WILL FILED WITH COUNTY CLERK

The will of the late Dr. E. Z. Hennessey has been filed for probate in the superior court of Napa county.

In it deceased directs that the sum of $10,000 be placed in trust with the Bank of Italy, the income from which is to be paid to his daughter, Mary Robertson, during her lifetime.

The sum of $15,000 is to be placed in trust with the Bank of Italy, the proceeds of which go to his son, Bertram J. Hennessey. In two years the sum of $5000 is to be paid to Bertram and in seven years the balance, $10,000, is to be paid him.

The sum of $2500 is to be placed in trust with the Bank of Italy, the proceeds to be paid to the grandson, Robert Hennessey. The principal is to be paid Robert when he reaches the age of 21 years.

All the residue of his estate is left to his son, Edwin R. Hennessey, and the latter is named executor without bonds.

The will intentionally makes not mention of the former wife, Mary Hennessey, or the youngest daughter, Frances Bolt.

Edward R. Hennessey has filed a petition for leters testamentary which states that the estate is worth more than $10,000.—Napa Register.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES ON HAIR BOBBING

The following interviews with the Sonoma Grammar School trustees on bobbed hair for school teachers are of timely interest:

Dr. Thomson—

"Anything that will contribute to the youth and beauty of our teachers is to be commended. Youthful appearing educators are to be desired, even though gland treatment, in addition to bobbing is to be resorted to."

The doctor trustee, while in a jocular mood, is nevertheless in the unique position of having bobbed hair enthusiasts in his own family, his wife and daughter both having adopted the popular fashion.

Frank Wedekind—

"I don't give a d—— whether school marms bob their tresses or not. Personally I admire a wealth of golden hair or raven tresses, but if the teacher does not cut too deep, I do not believe bobbing will affect the brain—vanity, perhaps—but not the brain, and we are only concerned with this phase of our educators."

Carl Dresel—

"Bobbed hair has become a fashion and it will have to run its course. I do not think that it improves the looks of young or old ladies; but that should not bother us, as fashions, although intended to improve our personal appearance, often do not do so, but are occasionally ridiculous and sometimes even ugly. They do not last, for fashions are a very changeable commodity, mostly created by interested persons who hope to make money out of it, and is costly.

"The hair, especially on ladies' heads, has been subjected to all kinds of indignities—towers built up to a height of feet, braided queues, curls, nets, waterfalls, puffed oevr the ears and once even as Nature made it grow.

"I understand that the present fashion is supposed to be due to expediency—reducing the labor of 'making up' and of generally caring for the hair. However, it will not last. Something different will soon be considered more becoming, and if I know the girls, they will surely give us a chance to admire a change.

"There are many fashions that are absurd, but the greatest absurdity of all is to fight against them, as some fool papas, school trustees, business offices and holier-than-thous have been doing by trying to prohibit the young ladies from bobbing their hair.

"Prohibition is the height of folly, proven by the history of the Turks and our own United States of today."

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY DEEDS PIT RIVER LANDS FOR PARK

The call of the wild will be answered by many who will journey into California's wonderlands. Another place to spend your vacation—a paridse sunrrounded by snow capped peaks and the shadowing Mount Shasta, and not far distant from noted Mt. Lassen National Park with its only active volcano in North America.

Approximately 175 acres of land along the famous Pit River has been deeded by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company to the State of California for state park purposes.

This stream, well stocked with mountain trout winds its way through the virgin timber lands and will be a Mecca for the vacationist and the angler. The parcel of land is located in Shasta county, bout 65 miles northeast of Redding, which is a one day's drive by auto over splendid state highways from San Francisco.

From Redding, a fine mountain road takes the traveler into the park. New roads are being constructed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company which will cross the Pit River on the crest of a 110 foot dam, which is being constructed to impound water for the Pit River Three Power Development. When completed, this dam will back up the waters of the Pit for a distance of 10 miles, forming thereby an immense mountain lake. The shores of this lake will border on the lands of the new state park. The Alturas Highway, which has been approved by the United States government, and the only all year route from the East to California, passes through this section of the state.

In this moutain fastness, nestled among towering pine and fir trees, we find one of the natural wonders of the Pit region, the Burney Falls 165 feet high, and dropping a volume of water of 150 cubic feet per second into a deep, mysterious pool. Burney Falls is destined to become famous and visited by thousands, for its granduer rivals that of the best in Yosemite.

These falls are different from others found in the Sierras in that they never dry up, for Burney Creek gushes from under the lava beds only a mile or so above the falls and has an unvarying flow the year round.

SAW RIGID QUARANTINE

Horace O. Camm, Petaluma business man, is home from a four-day trip through San Joaquin, Merced and Stanislaus counties and he brings back a tale that may cause some of the carless people of Sonoma county to sit up and take notice of quarantine rules and regulations, for his experiences and what he saw are just what will occur here if the dread cattle malady gets into this or Marin county.

Merced, Stanislaus and San Joaquin counties are tightly closed with armed guards at the boundaries of each and it is planned to close completely the by-highways to traffic so that the main arteries can be the more closely watched.

At the boundaries of these counties, armed guards stop all autos and the occupants must alight and walk through a trough the bottom of which is filled with a disinfectant. The autos are directed to be driven thru and auto and driver will bear for days the lysol odor of the disinfectant.

All autos are searched and farm products, etc., are confiscated, and Mr. Camm saw the guards confiscate a baby's milk bottle. He also saw them confiscate and destroy the lunch basket of another party of travelers because lettuce was used in sandwiches contained in the luncheon.

Automobiles that came from suspected counties or areas are also completely disinfected and all are searched. In places there is a line of cars half a mile long waiting for the search and disinfecting process and it sometimes holds up travelers for an hour. He advises people not to go south, but if they do, they should take the coast road, where the disease has not appeared and where regulations are less severe. Mr. Camm states that dogs and other pets are refused passage through the lines and autos containing pets are turned and sent back to enable the shipment of pets by express in crates which is allowed, after proper disinfecting is done and certificate granted.

Some people turned their pet dogs loose, so that they could follow the cars through the lines and these dogs were shot and killed by the guards. No farm produce of any kind is permitted to go through the quarantined counties. The guards are courteous but firm, and all persons are treated alike.

The Petaluman urged that the people of the county follow all regulations and orders, for it is for our own good and the fact that the malady has jumped a distance of 200 miles and that we have it within a distance of but a few miles, should be sufficient. He states that he has been informed that if the disease gets beyond control and enters the mountains and attacks the deer as well as the range cattle, it will set California back for 20 years and will be a national as well as a state disaster.

PLOT CHARGED BY GOLDEN GATE FERRY

Charges that competing transportation interests are back of the suit by some minority stockholders of the Golden Gate Ferry Company to oust the present officers and directors of that corporation were made at a meeting of prominent stockholders held at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco recently. It was also charged that the same interests have instigated a campaign to spread false propaganda designed to force down the market value of Golden Gate Ferry stock and thereby influence shareholders to sell out to brokers who, as representatives of enemies of the company, are endeavoring to buy up blocks of the stock.

In order to counteract this move, those who attended the meeting organized the Golden Gate Ferry Stockholders' Protective Committee and sent to all stockholders a letter in which the situation was explained.

Reed J. Bekins was elected chairman of the committee and Andrew J. Lynch secretary. The letter was signed by them and the following other members of the executive body of the committee: F. Richards, L. B. Galatorie, H. M. Holt, Philip Ambrose, Robert Fritsche, W. B. Larkins, W. P. Eichbaum, C. M. Goodwin and E. J. Lunney of San Rafael.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Giorno and family have moved to Richmond, where Mr. Giorno has a nice position with the Sante Fe Railroad Company.

PUNCH AND PUNCH BOARDS ARE TABOO

Following repreated warnings of the state law against the operator of punch boards, Sheriff Boyes declared that in the future any person found operating a punch board, or housing one in his place of business will be arrested under the law.

In the past, the boards have been confiscated by the sheriff and deputies and cases made out against the owners, usually San Francisco or Los Angeles people.

The places having the punch boards have been repeatedly warned by the sheriff and deputies not to operate them again, but it has been called to the attention of the officers that a dozen or more places in the county are again operating the boards.

A clean up drive is to be made of the county resort sections and all boards will be confiscated by the sheriff and complaint made against both the owners and the operators.

Many of the boards, the sheriff states, are so filled out that as much as $500 can be collected from them.

The companies operating boards, the sheriff states, have tried time and again to obtain permission to install and operate boards in this county and have been refused by both the sheriff and district attorney.

Several of the agents of the Los Angeles and San Francisco companies owning the boards have told the Sonoma county stores and drink stand owners that they had the permission of the sheriff and district attorney to operate the boards.

Permission has been given to no one to operate punch boards or any kind of gambling device Sheriff Boyes declares.

Six cases are already pending in the courts on punch board charges, it is said.

$100 AND A FLAG FOR DECEASED VETERANS

The war risk insurance laws provide that a sum not exceeding $100 shall be allowed for actual buriel expenses, including such transportation of the body as may be necessary, and, in addition, not to exceed $5.00 for furnishing a flag to drape the casket, which shall be given to the next of kin of the deceased veteran according to the laws of the state of residence of the deceased, for any person who dies after discharge or resignation from the service and who served in the military or naval service of the United States during any period of the Mexican War, the Civil War, the Spanish-American War, the World War, or with forces which were mobilized for participation in the Indian Wars, the Philippine Insurrection, the Boxer Expedition, the Cuban Pacification, Nicaraguan Campaign, Vera Cruz Expedition, or the punitive expedition into Mexico, and not leaving sufficient assets to meet such expense; providing the death has occurred or occurs since March 4, 1923.

The person or firm furnishing the flag or services, or, if already paid, the representative or relative making such payment, should file a claim with this office for burial expenses, presenting the itemized bills, a certified copy of the public record of death, or if such record cannot be furnished, a statement of the physician who attended the veteran in his last illness, and an affidavit of a member of the deceased veteran's family, or other relative, setting forth the information contained in the attached blank form which may be used.

Further information and blank affidavit forms will be gladly furnished by F. A. Royse, Chief, Co-operation Section, San Francisco sub-district office, United States Veterans' Bureau, 883 Market street, San Francisco, upon request by letter, telephone or personal call.

Persuasion.

Any woman can make any man do anything, if she can only persuade him that he is doing something really dashing and daredevil. But I admit it does take a clever woman to persuade a man that there is something dashing and dare-devilish in attending a village church.

I never had the bump of ambition. As long as a woman loves her husband, and has enough to eat, I can't see that it matters in what order she walks out of a drawing room.—From "The Lower Pool," by Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler.

BOBBED HAIR CRAZE WORRIES EDUCATOR

A. C. Olney, State Commissioner of Secondary Schools, who was formerly a teacher in Sonoma Valley Union High School, is quoted as being worried that prejudice against bobbed hair teachers will cause a shortage of educators if school boards continue to be "sot" against the new fashion. A Santa Rosa dispatch says:

"A. C. Olney, State Commissioner of Secondary Schools, who was here recently had a meeting of educators from adjoining counties, is beginning to take seriously reports that there will be a decided shortage of high school teachers in California next term because of the prevailing fashion of bobbed hair.

"The matter was first brought to his attention he said in an interview in Sacramento, at a recent meeting of principals of Sonoma, Marin and Napa counties, which was held in Santa Rosa.

"From various sources, Olney said, he is getting reports that school principals are lining up against teachers with abbreviated tresses. A considerable number of principals are said to be hostile to the point of threatening not to consider applications from teachers with bobbed locks during the next school year, and in this event Olney fears there will not be a sufficient number of long haired teachers to go around.

"The opposition, as near as Olney has been able to learn, has nothing to do with qualifications and teaching ability, but is based entirely upon the theory that women with bobbed hair lose part of the dignity and conservatism that is associated in the public mind with the teaching profession. Olney withheld personal comment, but indicated that he was not in sympathy with the movement."

NEW PAYMENT PLAN FOR FORDS

The new Ford dealers' payment plan recently instituted by San Francisco Ford dealers brings the pleasures and opportunities to be had from car ownership to many families who never have had the opportunity to purchase an auto heretofore.

The new plan involves a payment of approximately one-third of the purchase price down; the balance in 18 equal monthly installments. Prior to the use of this time payment contract, Ford dealers were calling for one-third down payment with the balance payable in 12 equal monthly installments.

It can readily be understood that the reduced payments make it possible for families to buy now and enjoy the use of their car this spring and summer instead of being compelled to wait until some time in the future.

The Ford dealers announced the 18 month contract in view of the fact that this country shows a population of approximately 90,000,000, with 20,000,000 families having in income sufficiently large to purchase an automobile, and in some instances as many as three in a family being able to make payments towards the purchase of a Ford car if convenient time payments were submitted to them.

Financiers of large corporations are arranging to assist Ford dealers in developing this new class of business.

FRED HOWELL DEFENDS PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR

Petaluma Argus,
Petaluma, Calif.

Dear Editor:

As attorney for Frank Phillips, public administrator of this county, the necessity seems to exist that a statement be made as to his position in the matter of the conduct of the business of his office.

It is needless to state that in most of the cases handled by the public administrator no immediate heirs are available, or they are widely scattered over the world. There are plenty of professional heir hunters, or attorneys soliciting business from heirs who are ever ready to present a claim to the estate in behalf of their clients. The public administrator does not consider that he would be properly performing the duties of his office were he to hand over the assets and the administration of an estate to a claimant without filing an answer to his claim and thereby requiring competent and legal proof of the relationship of the claimant, and particularly so where there are conflicting claims to the estate. It is not infrequently happens that a man is abandoned and deserted by his relations, no interest being manifested in him during life, but when his estate comes up for probate all are ready to claim his bounty and the distribution of his estate.

There is ever present the danger that an estate might be distributed to a person or relative who is not entitled to the estate and this is particularly true when the deceased has become estranged from or abandoned by his kin, or whose kin are widely scattered. In all such cases where the public administrator has been appointed by the court to administer the estate it has been his policy and will continue to be his policy, to require a claimant appearing to prove his or her relationship by clear and competent proof. The burden of proving the right to succeed to an estate is legally upon the claimant, yet it frequently happens that if the public administrator denies the claimant's relationship, as is his legal right, in fact, often his legal duty, and thereby puts them to their proof, immediately such claimant becomes incensed that his statements are not promptly taken at their face value.

The public administrator does not feel that he has any apology to offer to anyone, although there may be a few persons who believe that they have some personal grievance by reason of his conduct of his office in a manner which he believes the law requires. The manner of his conduct of the office of public administrator has been commended by sereval grand juries, and he proposes to continue to handle matters coming within his province in the same manner as in the past.

FRED S. HOWELL.
Attorney for Public Administrator.
